

23 March 2010 – I am Tired of Their Rebellion

“I am about to reveal my hand against this nation. I am tired of their rebellion. You say, ‘How have we rebelled?’ You have rebelled by taking your eyes off of me and off my Son. You have looked to your own hand and have become apathetic, pessimistic, permissive and cynical. You have closed your heart to me.”

The Lord will bring a great awakening to the UK. He will expose the works of man as sand shifting in the desert. A great exposure; a great exposure! Only he can reveal it. Only his word and the truth will remain.
